

The Church of All Hallows

The major part of the present church was built around 1240. Its tower was added in the fourteenth century and the parapet spire in the fifteenth.

Comprehensive restoration was carried out in the 1860s by Prebendary Francis Hingeston-Randolph who was Ringmore's parish priest for fifty years. During this restoration the remarkable mediaeval painting on the chancel arch was uncovered and the walls of the nave were partially lined with decorative tin plate. The tin plate eventually caused serious condensation and in 1961 a faculty was granted for its removal and for the application of a pink render to the walls.

The church structure is maintained in good working condition, but the ravages of time and weather necessitate continual maintenance and investment.

In 2003 a millennium clock was installed in the tower and more recently an electronic hymnal was purchased. This provides music when no organist is available. The Brevington organ, however, is maintained in good working order and is played regularly.

We would like to thank the Flower Arrangers and everyone who has supported the Flower Festival. A thank you also goes to those who have acted as Stewards at the Church. We are grateful and thank everyone who has provided and helped to serve refreshments in the W. I Hall. Special thanks to the Otter Garden Centre for providing some plants and Holywell Stores who always support local events.

We hope you have enjoyed your visit and thank you for your kind donation

PROGRAMME

Prayer together: We thank you, heavenly Father, for the beautiful display of flowers in this place, and for all the loving work which has made it, yours in creation and the arrangers in their skills. We praise you for all the life seen in flower gardens, singing birds and wild creatures, busy insects, bees gathering nectar, the myriad organisms in the soil. May we and all your creatures find peace and refreshment in your glorious creation. And may we all one day come to the Heavenly Garden, where we shall be at home with you. We ask this in the name of our Saviour, Jesus Christ, who redeemed the whole creation. Amen.

Other Prayers & As Jesus taught us, so we pray:
All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

O LORD MY GOD! when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the works Thy hand hath made,
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed:

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to Thee,
How great Thou art! How great Thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art! How great Thou art!*

When through the woods and forest glades I wander
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur,
And hear the brook, and feel the gentle breeze;

And when I think that God His Son not sparing,
Sent Him to die—I scarce can take it in.
That on the cross my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin:

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
And take me home—what joy shall fill my heart!
Then shall I bow in humble adoration
And there proclaim, my God, how great Thou art!

GOSPEL CHOIR

PRAISE TO THE LORD, THE ALMIGHTY,
the King of creation!

O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!

All ye who hear, Brothers and sisters, draw near,
Praise Him in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee;

Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee:
Ponder anew What the Almighty can do,
Who with His love doth befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord, who doth nourish thy life and restore thee,

Fitting thee well for the tasks that are ever before thee,
Then to thy need He like a mother doth speed,
Spreading the wings of grace o'er thee.

Praise to the Lord, who when tempests their warfare are waging,

Who, when the elements madly around thee are raging,
Biddeth them cease, Turneth their fury to peace,
Whirlwinds and waters assuaging.

Praise to the Lord, who, when darkness of sin is abounding,

Who, when the godless do triumph, all virtue confounding,
Sheddeth His light, Chaseth the horrors of night,
Saints with His mercy surrounding.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore Him!
All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him!

Let the Amen
Sound from His people again:
Gladly for aye we adore Him.

Flower Festival Service

Sunday 9th June 2013

Opening Words from the prophet Hosea:

Let us acknowledge the Lord; let us press on to acknowledge him. As surely as the sun rises, he will appear; he will come to us like the winter rains like the spring rains that water the earth.

Responses from Matthew's Gospel:

Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow

They toil not neither do they spin

Yet even Solomon in all his glory

Was not arrayed like one of these.

O WORSHIP THE LORD in the beauty of holiness,
Bow down before Him, His glory proclaim;
With gold of obedience and incense of lowliness,
Kneel and adore Him; the Lord is His name.

Low at His feet lay thy burden of carefulness,
High on His heart He will bear it for thee,
Comfort thy sorrows, and answer thy prayerfulness,
Guiding thy steps as may best for thee be.

Fear not to enter His courts in the slenderness
Of the poor wealth thou wouldst reckon as thine;
Truth in its beauty, and love in its tenderness,
These are the offerings to lay on His shrine.

These, though we bring them in trembling and fearfulness,
He will accept for the name that is dear;
Mornings of joy give for evenings of tearfulness,
Trust for our trembling, and hope for our fear.

O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness,
Bow down before Him, His glory proclaim;
With gold of obedience and incense of lowliness,
Kneel and adore Him: the Lord is His name.

FLOWER FESTIVAL – STEWARDS

Dear

Thank you for agreeing to help over the weekend 7th – 9th June Flower Festival in the Church.

I enclose a rota highlighting your time(s) arranged.

The main door and choir door will both be open during the 3 days and extending over the 6pm Sunday Songs of Praise Service. There will be Church donation points by both. A plant stall is to be placed outside the Church on the right between the doors with an honesty box for any sales

Please give a welcome and programme to visitors and suggest they can best view the flowers in number order circling round the Church. There is a returnable card inside the main door by the books giving brief details of the Church building should there be queries. It would be helpful to indicate to people leaving, the direction up the hill of the W.I. Hall where refreshments (& loos) are available.

Finally, we wish you a pleasant time in the Church with an opportunity to enjoy the flowers yourself!

Thank you,

Drina Williams (810405)

Ringmore Flower Festival 2013

Ringmore's All Hallows church was ablaze with colour for the village's Flower Festival last weekend. The three-day event attracted record numbers in the sunshine and raised valuable funds for repairs to the church, and for the Women's Institute.

Every corner of the church was filled with flowers, each arrangement inspired by the theme of 'Celebration'.

Churchwarden Phill Errett said: "The Flower Festival was a tremendous success and showed Ringmore at its very best. Lots of people participated in many different ways and the proceeds exceeded all our expectations.

The flower arrangements were produced not only by individuals but also by the many village organisations. Flower arranging was co-ordinated by Rosemary Wilson and Jinny McCabe who were always on hand to offer advice and encouragement. The imaginative and beautiful arrangements ranged from the simple to the sumptuous and were all stylish and inspiring.

Visitors were welcomed to the church by festive, handmade bunting over the gate, vibrant pot plants and bright clusters of flowers in shoes and boots lining the path. The shoes and boots had been planted up by the parish children, coordinated by Alice Thornton and Rosemary Wilson.

Refreshments were served by members of the Ringmore Women's Institute throughout the weekend at the WI Hall. Phill Errett said: 'The WI's willing band of helpers served delicious cakes, ploughman's lunches and cream teas which were thoroughly enjoyed by all.' A plant stall outside the church also did brisk business.

Artwork produced by members of Ringmore's Art Group was on display inside the church, attracting comments about its high standard. The group, led by artist and Ringmore resident Judith Woodings, has been running for two years and meets weekly. Art group member, Hilary Vanstone, whose work was on display said: "It's been lovely coming to Judith's classes. She has taught us so much."

On Sunday evening a Celebration Service brought the festival to a close. Phill Errett added: "The church was once again packed". John Elliott took the special Service in which we praised God who created all things, including the wondrous natural beauty which surrounds us. The Modbury Gospel singers, led by Jo Highley, were present and sang three short gospel songs which were full of vibrancy. It was a truly wonderful weekend of flowers, music, food and plants, which, thanks to a vast band of helpers, enabled all to enjoy the event. As one visitor said "Absolutely Blooming Marvellous"

A joint Church/W.I. event

Welcome

AS a joint venture by All Hallows Church and Ringmore Womens Institute a flower festival will be held in the Church of All Hallows in the picturesque South Hams village of Ringmore (near Kingsbridge) from Friday, June 7 to 9.

The festival based on the "Celebration" theme will display a wide range of over 20 flower arrangements provided by both individuals and organisations in the village. The village children will decorate the path leading to the church door with flower arrangements in all types of various footwear.

Professional florists Jinny McCabe and Rosemary Wilson will also prepare spectacular exhibits themselves as well as providing advice for other participants. The festival opens on Friday morning June 7 and continues through to Sunday June 9.

Each day the Church will be open for viewing from 10am til 6pm together with a plant stall selling a wide selection of plants at reasonable prices.

Refreshments will be available throughout the day in the nearby W.I. Hall and garden. Cream teas, home-made cakes, biscuits, tea and coffee on sale all day with a Ploughman's Lunch (ham or cheddar) with red or white wine available from 12 noon to 2.30pm.

The Festival will close on Sunday evening at 6pm with a "Festival of Praise" service in the Church.

Both venues are wheelchair friendly and there is adequate free parking within the village.

Do come and join us and see for yourselves the vibrant display of flowers in our lovely church, a warm welcome awaits you together with delicious refreshments in the W.I. Hall.
