

Savoy band playing till midnight. Helen took it up later some last night. It really seems to me a most marvellous invention, for Christopher puts it in the rack in the train, & it plays thru all the way to Biggleswade, startling all his fellow travellers. He got us on to Berlin last night with her, & then switched us on to Paris too.

Thurs. Oct 21.

Christopher, Helen and I walked down the Thames at 10.30, & saw many numbers of birds through glasses, but although we got quite near Ching Hill, we never saw the osprey which frequents these parts. Had drinks at one, as Helen had invited Frank & Hallands, for a Building Committee.

and Christopher invited Joan & me in his Riley to Biggleswade, where I joined the Wor. Municipal Men's Club. & unveiled the Roll of Honour. I also inaugurated the new Billiard Table quite successfully, & managed to hit the red ball without cutting the cloth! lol

Lady Milmay opening the new billiard room for the Biggleswade Club. "Harold" photo.

All three had tea there, and got home soon after 6.
I felt the whole afternoon was a great success,
& enjoyed every moment of it.

Friday, Oct 22.

We all three hunted, the meet being at the Carew Arms, & Joan came with us to the meet.
We had a very amusing day, but with little sport, and Chris later went down the Valley,
and returned with two wild ducks & two teal, but he had to get Barker & a dog to go down the stream & help him retrieve them.

Saturday, Oct 23rd

Helen & I motored Christopher & Joan to see Buckfast Abbey, Holne - Dartmoor, Widdicombe
& the moor in every direction, & it all looked lovely.
They were very much impressed by Buckfast, and Christopher was taken to see the Cloisters & all the part where they live. We all went up later to the field & picked mushrooms. Three excellent teas.

Sunday, Oct 24.

Ernie's tea at 8, & Christopher took us all to Hinton at 11. We had Mr Hughes & Diana to luncheon for tennis, but it poured with rain, & there was no possibility of playing. Colonel & Mrs Wallace Wright came to see us at 3, but could not stay for tea.
Mr. Harvey also came to dinner & was very amusing.