FRANCIS KIRKHAR'S GIFT [see below].

Francis Kirkham's Gift. Francis Kirkham gave in 1768 a house situate in the parish, for the use of the part thereof. We have not been able to discover any instrument relative to this donation. The house is appropriated to the reception of the poor of the parish.

III. General Digest, 1865-7. III. The following is the description of the Charities of this Parish contained in the General Digest, 1865-7:—

IV. Not in Register of Unreported Charities. IV. There are no references to this Parish in the Charity Commissioners' Register of Unreported Charities.

V, Constitution and Population of Parish. V. The ancient parish of Ringmore is identical with the civil parish, The population (1901) is 204.

VI. Report of Assistant Commissioner. VI. The Inquiry was held in the School, Ringmore, and was attended by Mr. W. Savery, churchwarden, and Mr. F. Edgecumbe, assistant overseer, who stated that no Charities were known to exist for this parish. The rector, Rev. H. C. Hingeston Randolph, who was prevented from being present, made a statement to the same effect in writing.

Francis Kirkham's Gift (see above).

Frameis Kirkhom's Gift. The house referred to in the Report of 1821, according to an account written and locally published by the late Canon Hingeston Randolph, father of the present rector, and himself rector of the parish and Rural Dean of Woodleigh, and derived from the old parish book, was sold in 1839 to the then lord of the manor as parish property, and is now used as a barn. The money was applied for various parochial purposes.

24th July 1911.

GEORGE G. PHILLIMORE, Assistant Commissioner.
